For November

This new novel by Mrs. Deland is perhaps the most powerful work of fiction produced by any American writer for many years. It is a story of tremendous dramatic strength, yet full of the same lovable qualities which have given the author so strong a hold on the affections of her readers. It is the first novel which Mrs. Deland has written since her great success, "The Awakening of Helena Richie." This is a novel that has grown slowly-Four long, patient years have gone to its making. It is life itself. It is splendidly illustrated by F. Walter Taylor.

A Romance of life's reckoning

SECOND STRING

By ANTHONY HOPE

A strong story of modern English life Mr. Hope has entered a new field in "Second String." Far removed in theme and setting from his earlier works, it deals, with much individuality and power, with the tangled threads of love and public life. It presents a new side to Mr. Hope's power over plot and narrative.
